سوالات تشریحی

Translate the following passages into fluent Farsi:

- Dualists were those who believed that creation is divided into two-good and evil realms. According to this they believed in two sources of creation for the universe. And they said that the good things were made by Yazdan and the evil things by Ahriman. Their purpose in this belief was to make God free from imperfection, insufficiency and evil.
- We must ask if God knows all the things after He has created them. And the answer is, yes, of course He does. God knows about things, whatever their place and whenever they happen. He is aware of the shining of the furthest stars in the highest heaven and of the tempestuousness of the foaming blue waves.

3. Don't you see in the precise combination and quantity of the metals and other elements from which the cell is formed? And don't you see the amazing structure of the heart and its way of working which attract the attention of today's thinkers is it not a plan of perfect and superior design?
4. We do not wish to say that God is similar to these facts, because God is a truth, higher than these, to which nothing is equal or comparable, but our intention is to say that in the same way as we discover the existence of these things through their effects, we can discover the existence of God through His signs.
